Tour Highlights

This tour will provide access to places you may not find on your own and is designed to inspire “salon-style conversations”. We have crafted a one day itinerary of rich art and architectural experiences.

Our trip will include:

- Visits to several premier private collections of contemporary art. We will tour each collection with Sara and the collectors as our guides. The collections were strategically selected to provide rich experiences and provoke “Conversations...”.
- We will visit recent works of contemporary architecture by wHY Architects. We will tour each work with Max and wHY architect and co-founder Kulapat Yantrasast as guides. In 2012 Kulapat was named as one of the Most Powerful 100 People in the Art World by Art + Auction magazine.
- We will have a private tour at MOCA – including a tour of A NEW SCULPTURALISM: Contemporary Architecture from Southern California, part of the Getty Foundation’s Pacific Standard Time Presents: Modern Architecture in L.A. (Note: The MOCA tour is subject to change, based on the number of private collections we can schedule)

This trip has been designed to fit into any travel schedule. If you only have time for a day trip – you can fly over in the morning and home in the evening. If your schedule permits, you can add on extra days on your own. We will provide lists of art galleries and events connected with Pacific Standard Time Presents: Modern Architecture, the city wide, Getty sponsored event, which includes 16 exhibits focusing on modern architecture in LA.

All members of CF are invited, but the trip is limited to the first 22. When full, we will start a waiting list.

Due to limited space, reservations do not open until Tuesday, January 29 at 9:00 am. Reservations must be made and will only be accepted by calling the CF Response Line at (602) 307-2029. You will receive confirmation of your reservation or notification that you have been placed on the waiting list.

Included in the price of the tour:
